ELEVEN JURORS IN SMITH TRIAL.

But One Man Needed Before Trial Starts Today.

A SPECIAL VENIRE CALLED

By Sheriff Johns and of 60 Called 39. Had Been Examined Up to Noon Today—Examination of Jurymen By Attorneys.

Special to The Courier.
UNIONTOWN, Sept. 13.—Up to noon today 11 jurors had been examined by the defense, but one of his father, D. P. Smith and his brother-in-law, Evans Moser, one hundred and nine jurors have been examined. Three more jurors were picked this morning from the special venire selected by Sheriff P. A. Johns yesterday. They were Guy Mahaney, Harry Titterington and Elmer E. Davidson. The Commonwealth exercised its right in making six peremptory challenges, bringing the total to 11 of the 20 allowed. The defense made no peremptory challenges and had 13 it may still make before the examination is exhausted. Of the 60 special venires called by Sheriff Johns, 39 were examined at this morning's session.

At noon yesterday, counsel on both sides of the H. Frank Smith murder case were of the opinion that a jury would be secured by evening, but when that time arrived, only eight had been accepted of the 69 called.

Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen ordered Sheriff P. A. Johns to call a special venire of 60 jurors. Some trouble was experienced by the official, and up until a quarter of ten this morning he had only secured 66. The necessary number were in the court room at the required time.

Both attorneys were more careful in their examination of the prospective jurors, today, as those on the new panel were unfamiliar to them.

Thomas L. Howard, of Upton town, was the first of 70 jurors to be called, the first to be sworn this morning. He was accepted by the defense, but challenged by the Commonwealth. Joseph Michale said it would take more than evidence to change the opinion he had formed of the case and was challenged for cause by the defense.

Walter Prentiss of Upton town, a relative of Attorney W. C. McLean, for the defense, and was challenged.

John Ringer, clerk in Squire John Doyle's office, returned the information to court in the Smith case. He had a fixed opinion and a challenge for cause by the defense was sustained.

Humble officer Howard Ebert, was challenged by the Commonwealth, by reason of a fixed opinion.

William Atman, a cold dealer residing at the county seat, had a fixed opinion and was challenged.

The defense used a peremptory challenge in the case of T. Springer Todd, proprietor of the West End hotel.

Joseph A. Mason, the Connellsville real estate man, held his opinion could not be removed. He was challenged for cause.

A Dunbar township farmer, Matthew Shaffer, was challenged. He had a fixed opinion.

D. W. Sulley, Upton town merchant, was challenged because of a fixed opinion.

Because of the condition of his health John P. Hawkins of Upton town, was excused.

For a like reason, Rice Shaw, a Connellsville man, was excused by Judge Van Swearingen.

Gov. Mahaney, clerk of Upton town, was accepted by the Commonwealth. As the defense was satisfied, he took a seat in the box us juror No. 9.

George Sloan, a Upton town clerk, was accepted by the defense, but challenged by the Commonwealth as being opposed to capital punishment.

Harry Titterington had formed and expressed an opinion, but would lay it aside if the testimony warranted such. The Commonwealth accepted the man, as did the defense and he took seat No. 10.

Through the newspapers E. W. Hague of Upton town, had secured an opinion of the case and was challenged.

A. E. Malcolm is a brother-in-law of Attorney McLean and was challenged by the defense.

The Connellsville restaurant man, William C. Bishop, was challenged peremptorily by the Commonwealth, after being accepted by the defense.

Frank May, a Cambria county clerk, was challenged for cause, by reason

NATIONAL ISSUES VOTED BY MAINE.

Democratic Governor-Elect Says That Is What Won Victory.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS SILENT

It is Generally Admitted They Had Hard Fight to Make—Democratic Senator and Three Congressmen From Maine.

United Press Telegram.

PORTLAND, Maine, Sept. 13.—The return today indicates that the entire Democratic slate ticket has been elected in Maine. In the Congressional race three districts have gone Democratic and the fourth is still in doubt. The Legislature will be Democratic on the joint ballot, ensuring election of a Democratic United States Senator.

The Republicans claim Arthur Hinckley and Congressman Gurney elected by a small majority.

"Local conditions were not responsible for the victory. The people voted on national issues. High cost of living, the control of the Republican party in the interests of the trusts and Cannonism contributed to our victory. The people of this country are tired of Republican misrule," declared Governor-elect Plaisted today.

Plaisted claims the official plurality will probably exceed 3,000. The Democrats swept every city except Belfast and Calais. It is admitted the Governor-elect outgarnished his opponents. Republican leaders decline to comment on the situation.

Congressman McKinley of the Congressional Campaign Committee was as confident of success that Sunday night he assured President Taft his election was a foregone conclusion. The witnesses indicated the election of four Republicans to Congress.

Incomplete returns at noon show there is a chance for the Democrats capturing four Congressmen. Hinckley claims a victory by only a hundred or two votes.

Chaloner Gives "Brother Bob" the Laugh Now

United Press Telegram.
COHOBAM, Va., Sept. 13.—"I'm sorry for him, but it's my turn to laugh," said John Armstrong Chaloner, brother of "Sister Bob," "I forgot it. When I first heard of his engagement to Lina Cavalier I telegraphed Bob to be sure and keep enough money to buy clothes and a bunch. I sent congratulations to her after the engagement and wedding, but never to Bob. She is the one to congratulate us on the successful outcome of our plans."

Chaloner changed his name from Chaler because of hatred for the family after he was placed in a New York asylum.

"My opinion is she is a confidence woman—a handshaker who shakes with her eyes instead of her hands—and I must credit her with being a successful thief."

"The Bible forbids me calling my brother a fool so I won't do it. I would rather call Bob a Jackass. Tell Bob to beware of alimony demands and to keep enough to live on for he would not have much left by the time the song bird got through with him. I don't know Cavalier but I know what she intended doing to Bob, although it was none of my business. She is his; not mine. I have had troubles enough without marrying a song bird."

Printers Shy; Enter No Bids for the Journal

United Press Telegram.
HARRISBURG, Sept. 13.—Today at noon was set for opening the bids for the "Legislative Journal" but none arrived. It is understood the drastic provisions of the law to abolish the "Legislative Journal" and separate Journal of the Senate; substituting an "Official Legislative Journal," frightened the printers.

Superintendent of Public Printing Pomeroy will ask the Attorney General's advice how to proceed and will likely again ask for bids.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most benevolent environment of soil—or sunshine—or of atmosphere—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth?

A ton of manure will not help, a plant that has a cancer eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Nowhere's Herpetic destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

A BIG PICNIC:

Held Saturday at Smithton by Darren, Penn. Sunday School.

At 10:30 a.m. Saturday in the beautiful grove on Barron Run hill, there was held one of the biggest picnics ever held in those parts. The United Brethren Sunday School of Darren held its annual outdoor picnic last Saturday at the Grand Union Church of God Sunday School. Mr. Rowe, a retired public school teacher, was president of the gathering. He introduced the speakers and the program and presided over the big week trial in the west. It was filled with such information as those who were never in the big west wanted to know. Prof. Howard knew all about the country and how to fascinate an audience with good homely English.

Dr. S. Fulmer of the Grundyville Sunday School made a good address on the subject of the country and old times on Marion Run when follows took their girls riding horse-back, and went to log school houses to school and carried out lanterns in which were lanterns and singing, all of which had never been seen on old Marion Run, having been elicited by a Darren-Runner.

Rev. W. H. Guyer made an extended address on the Passion Play, pointing out its good traits and some lessons which were applicable to the custom. The dinner was one of the biggest ever spread on Marion Run. The names were many and innocent, and the music and order of the first course were excellent. The speaker extended every kindness to his guests.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Holley, West Side, was the scene last evening of a very delightful and well arranged surprise party given in honor of the birthday anniversary of Rev. George. The anniversary was on Saturday evening, and the party was given in the front room of the house.

When they kept talking till 11:30 at night when they adjourned for supper.

Then those who were not otherwise engaged came back in the evening having dinner, for an after-meeting on the subject, and called for more until 10 o'clock.

THE MAINE ELECTION AND WHAT IT MEANS.

The announcement that Maine has gone Democratic will come to the masses of the Republican party as a shock, yet when the situation in Maine is analyzed it will be realized that it is only the expected that has happened, and that it has happened perhaps for the best.

While Maine is customarily a safe Republican State, it has not always been so by any means, for the reason that its people are very independent in their voting, and local questions like the liquor problem have frequently set aside political results.
This question entered largely into the late campaign. The people were much dissatisfied with the enforcement of the Prohibition law by a State Commission instead of by the Senate as formerly.

But perhaps the chief cause of Republican defeat was more sectional feeling among the Republicans themselves. Senator Hale and his followers had long dominated the party.
His rule became more autocratic than diplomatic. Insurgency took root and under recent exotic conditions grew like the green bay tree.
Republican success was sacrificed on the altar of sectional ambitions.

The result in Maine can hardly be attributed to the Insurgent or Progressive movement in politics, but it is certain that it was largely brought about by a divided party, and for that reason it furnished an object lesson for November.

If the result in Maine shall awaken Republicans everywhere to the folly of splitting their family quarrel out of the household, and shall arouse them to the importance of uniting in support of the great and vital principles common to all Republican creeds to the end that those policies shall be saved from defeat and the country from the folly of such destruction, it will not have happened in vain.

DEMOCRATIC
BUT OTHERWISE ALL RIGHT.
The movement to defeat Congressman John Dalzell seems ever to have behind it the dark shadow of Dr.
Robert J. Black, once Mayor of Mc-Keesport, since retired gentleman, now eagerly anxious to serve the people again, especially in the halls of Congress.

Failing to beat Congressman Dalzell at the primaries, Doctor Black tried to contest the election. He had a number of the ballot boxes opened, but the frauds he alleged were not found. The Keystone party offered him their nomination, and he joined the ranks of the Sore Heads. He subsequently succeeded in inveigling the prim old Prohibition maid into letting him have a front seat with her on the Water Wagon.

Let these two nominations work not all he wanted. He had the assurance to demand the Democratic nomination. The Democratic nominee is James A. Wakefield, a brilliant orator, an able attorney and a rockribbed Democrat. He disposed of Black's demand briefly and pointedly. He declined emphatically to withdraw, saying he knew of no reason why he should "make way for a Republican, and especially for a half-Rabbit."

Candidate Wakefield in Democratic,
but aside from that he's all right.

BETTER HOT AIR THAN DANGER OF DEATH.

Our colorless but otherwise esteemed contemporary, The News, terms the unsolicited opinion of a leading boiler expert, concerning the danger of locating the High School steam heating boilers in the basement of the building, as "blast of hot air."

Notwithstanding some contrary opinions, The Courier still believes that it is only doing its plain duty to the public and especially the parents of children who attend the High School, in directing attention to this matter.

We have not presumed to pass upon the question, but merely to voice an expert opinion and put it up to the school authorities for investigation.
It is their duty to satisfy themselves beyond a doubt that the proposed location of the steam heating plant out.

The troubles of the Postal Savings Clerk will begin this month.

threatens no danger. It is not enough to say that the danger is remote or insignificant. There should be no danger at all if it can be prevented.

Better a blast of hot air than a hellish blast of destruction and death.

With a fine showing of indignation,
the Uniontown Herald complains about
"inaccuracy, misleading and mischievous articles" which appear in other papers. Perhaps the High-Water Organ is indulgent because it thinks it is a disseminator of "inaccurate, misleading and mischievous articles." It has been, and still remains, without a rival in the field of "Maypole" journalism.

This is when the county seat "city"
got a "hit" on the jury.

J. Pluvius evidently approved Connellsville's clean-up sentiment. He got busy this morning and scrubbed
the streets thoroughly.

The Beef Barons are insulted to answer personally for the high cost of living.

The South Connellsville shooting case was very promptly decided by the judge. It was so evidently an accident that the authority would perhaps have permitted the unfortunate perpetrator to remain at liberty on his own recognizance, but did not venture so far as to surrender himself and asked to be taken into custody.

Uptown shaves have gone up 50% and there is a possible boom in safety razors.

"Not guilty by reason of insanity."
That is what the defense said in connection with the trial of Harry Thaw, but it is not the duty of the court to commit such insane persons to the restrictions of an asylum. Harry Thaw is still in Matthewan.

The Uniontown Herald's solicitude about Connellsville's welfare is not quite as keen as its desire to say something derogatory of The Courier, and in doing so it cannot escape from the habit of being "inaccurate, misleading and mischievous."

"Uncle Walt Mason" will sing no more this side of the Other Shore.

Confluence sees a Western Maryland boom. Tell it not to the Union Gates. It will make him quite angry.

The charge of peonage in the Irwin district will not be seriously taken until it is better shown.

The Blue Law has blazed forth in Mount Pleasant.

The report that a big gas well has been bought in near the West Virginia State line is interesting to 30-cent gas towns like Uniontown and Connellsville.

Johnstown is paying a pretty stiff price for Huntingdon county water, but Johnstown must have the water. A summer resort town cannot be run successfully without some water and something to swim with it.

There is a growing suspicion that Napoleon has returned from Libia.

Candidate Berry is said to be "working" the Sunday Schools. Politics and religion never mixed well in this country.

Since Willis Hearst has applied for membership in the political firm of T.
Hoover & Co., Limited, the New York World demands that the Colonial Market, Scottsdale, be dropped.

MAINE SWEEP BY DEMOCRATS.

Elect Governor, and Probably Three Congressmen.

ALSO GET STATE LEGISLATURE

First Time in Thirty Years Republican Party Has Lost Out in Maine.
Asher C. Hinck the Only Republican Successful.

MAINE'S NEW GOVERNOR.

F. W. Plaisted, Elected
on the Democratic Ticket.

Portland, Me., Sept. 13.—Rockribbed Republican Maine, which has been solidly Republican for thirty years, without a break in all that time, has elected a Democratic governor by about 5,000 plurality, returns two Democratic representatives to Congress, possibly a third, leaving but one Republican representative from the state and also elects a Democratic legislature to fill the vacancy occasioned by the expiration of the term of Senator Eugene Hale.

It was a landslide, sweeping everything before it. Governor Bert M. Farnell, the Republican candidate, who won his election two years ago by about 7,000 plurality and whose administration has been one of progress, has gone down in defeat, the first Republican candidate for governor to be defeated since 1882.

Plaisted Elected.

The man who defeated him is Colonel Frederick W. Plaisted, mayor of Augusta, the son of the last Democratic governor of Maine, General Harris Plaisted, whose election was due to a fusion of the Greenback and Democratic vote in 1882.

The Republicans have only saved one congressman out of the four. Asher C. Hinck, clerk at the speaker's table in Washington and a parliamentarian of the national house, has been elected in Tom Reed's old district, the First, by a plurality not exceeding 400. His opponent, William Pennell, who is likely to be named as the Democratic senator from Maine, since he has failed of election to congress, made a vigorous campaign in this district, attacking the tariff policies of the Republican party and advocating reciprocity with Canada.

Hinck Just Wins.

The contest in the First district was the hottest it is ever known and Mr. Hinck has won only by a narrow margin.

The lowest plurality a Republican candidate ever received in this district, up to this time, was 1,000, which was given to Thomas B. Reed in the Greenback campaign of 1882.

John F. Swartz, the present representative to congress in the Second congressional district, formerly represented by Nelson Dingley and Charles E. Littlefield, has not defeat by a plurality of at least 1,000.

Daniel J. McMillen of Lowell, died four years ago with the aid of Samuel Gompers, the labor leader, has been elected in that district. McMillen is a lawyer and one of the leaders of his party in Maine. He made his fight upon the tariff issue, severely criticizing Swartz for his attitude in supporting Speaker Cannon and supporting the Payne-Aldrich Bill, and Swartz's defeat is attributed to the insincerity feeling in his district against Speaker Cannon.

Gold Wins on Sixth Attempt.

In the Third district, Edwin C. Burleigh, representing the district formerly represented by James G. Blaine, and Seth L. Milliken, a district which always has been solidly Republican, has been defeated by a small plurality, his opponent being Samuel W. Gould, who has run against Mr. Burleigh for six consecutive times.

The Fourth district, now represented by Frank B. Guernsey, who is a candidate for re-election, is in

FIREMEN'S PARADE TOMORROW NIGHT.

Scottdale Will Be the Gathering Place for Both Counties.

BIG EVENT OF CARNIVAL WEEK

Blacksnake Is Killed on Chestnut Street—Schools Now in Full Swing. Minister Tells People to Use Telephone More—Other Notes.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTTDALE, Sept. 13.—Tomorrow evening will be the big one of the Firemen's Carnival week, when a master gathering of men from Westmoreland and Fayette counties will parade the streets, accompanied by half a dozen or more bands. The departments that will take part will be Greensburg, Southwest Greensburg, South Greensburg, Jeannette, Youngwood, Standard, Everson, Dawson, Connellsville, Uniontown and Mt. Pleasant, according to reports received here. The Greensburg department has chartered a big West Penn car, and will be accompanied by the Firemen's Drum Corps, while the Southwest Greensburg department will do likewise and with the Captain John B. Keenan Drum Corps will take another special car, while Youngwood, not to be outdone, will have a special with music for the trip. These companies alone, even if none of the rest should come, would make a very handsome showing. There was a big crowd out last evening enjoying the sights and sounds of the carnival and this evening promises to be the same. If the weather continues lovely, the Scottdale band will head the parade and the companies and bands will alternate. The parade will be formed on Bridge street, and the line of parade will be as follows: Bridge street up Pittsburg street to Broadway, out Broadway to Market street, up Market street to Grove street, then Grove street to Mulberry street, down Mulberry to Chestnut street, out Chestnut to Loucks avenue, down Loucks avenue to Broadway, down Broadway to Pittsburg street, up Pittsburg street to Spring street to the show grounds.

Another Challenge.
Rev. John B. Koehne, D. D., gave another of the lectures of the greatest series of its kind ever delivered in Scottdale, at the Presbyterian Church last evening, and for over an hour held his audience spellbound with his vivid marshalling of facts in his challenge to Modern Skepticism. He showed where man had made the church weak, and then proved the self-renewing life of religion. The speaker cannot be charged with sensationalism, but he is not prude and he got down to facts that caused thoughtfulness. Dr. Koehne is a powerful speaker, and his subject he has distilled down until he is able to waste no word. At the close of the lecture, Rev. J. E. Hutchison advised a telephone campaign today to stir everyone possible to attend the lectures.

Case of Diphtheria.

A case of diphtheria has been reported in Scottdale, the victim being John, the son of Mrs. Harry Welbel of Homestead avenue, near the Pittsburgh school house.

Killed a Blacksnake.
While Miss Irene Mumau was coming down Chestnut street past the school buildings on Sunday she was startled by almost stopping on a blacksnake that was investigating the end of town. She called for help and Homer Loucks with a piece of board put an end to the snake, which measured four feet and a half strong. A blacksnake was killed a few weeks ago on Loucks avenue.

Ton Was Convicted.

Police Officer Phillip McCabe was in Uniontown yesterday where he was a witness in the assault and battery case brought against Tom Winebrenner of East Scottdale. Winebrenner was charged with going home and assaulting his wife and throwing the clothes she had been laundrying out in the yard. Thomas was convicted.

Poultry Meeting.
A special meeting of the Scottdale Poultry and Pet Stock Association will be held in Justice J. C. Stenger's office this evening, on matters connected with the poultry show in December. The association will meet in the same office on Thursday evening for the regular meeting.

The Scottdale schools have been put in the running order after the new arrangement necessary upon the opening of the new High School building, and every department will be in running order today. The library fixtures were brought over to the High School building and the shelves will likely be placed this week, so that the work of preparing Mr. Keltner's gift so that it will be available for the people of this community. Away on vacation.

L. H. Yosthers and wife left Sunday for Harperville, O., Wheeling, W. Va., and other points of interest for a two weeks vacation.

Many Entries.

Many entries for the approaching tennis tournament are coming in from Westmoreland and Fayette players, and the Scottdale Tennis Club feels that it will show the best courts in either county. The club is particularly anxious to play the Connellsville people and are looking for a good list of entries from that town.

MT. PLEASANT.

MT. PLEASANT, Sept. 13.—James McClain, M. M. Byers and Adam Simon, road supervisors of Mt. Pleasant township, who were recently elected to the office of supervisor, will be holding a meeting at the school house on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting is to celebrate the 43rd anniversary of their marriage.

It was on Saturday, April 20, that the above supervisors decided to drive Mt. Pleasant township the first break of day in Westmoreland county. It was their intention to have the State road and Pleasant Unity road front from the State road at the old Samuel Andrews farm to the Middle Church, one-half mile west of Pleasant Unity, and return by the same route.

It was about 10 o'clock in the morning when they started, and the road was in fair condition.

OFFICIAL BATTING AVERAGES READY.

Conroy of Lemont Led Frick League; Thomas Real Leader.

MANY IN THE .300 CLASS

Although Pitching Was Uniformly Good the Swatters Followed Example Set in National League Which Has Been Heavier Hitting Than Usual.

By George N. Connell
Secretary Central Frick League.
The official batting averages of the Central Frick League players has been compiled and includes every player who appeared in two or more games. The Youngstown players are omitted from the completed records as their averages were all included in the figures published a few weeks back.

Although the pitching in the league was uniformly good, the grand average of all the twirlers helms something like 62 hits per game, there were any number of exceptionally good hitters in the league. Twenty-nine players hit .300 or better and of this number 16 played in more than half the number of league games. Ten players hit .400 or over and five of these played in half the scheduled games or better. The hitting of the league was remarkably good and not a few of the batsmen made exceptionally clever marks. Several players had really remarkable performances. Hanson of Trotter played in 10 games and hit safely in nine of them. Gotsel of Leisenring and Frazier of Trotter got one or more hits in 12 of their 14 games. Means of Monarch, T. Jones of Davidson and F. Jones of Leisenring played in 14 games and only in three of them failed to connect for a single or two. A. Thomas only missed his two of his nine games.

The actual leader of the league in batting was Conroy with .600, but he only performed in three games. Doorley of Leisenring hit .500 in five games and King the same in three. A. Thomas of Morgan is the real leader with .464 to his credit. Jollio Joe a close second with .429 and Hanson third with .419. Jollio Joe made a record as a pinch hitter, twice being sent to the scratch and coming across both times with a single. J. Patrick of Lemont, Columbus of Trotter, T. Jones of Davidson, Kano of Monarch, Cunningham of Davidson, Frazier of Trotter, Means of Monarch and Sibley of Leisenring were all hefty hitters.

The stolen base record reflects great credit on the back stops of the league. Seven seems to have been the limit for each player. Means of Monarch and Roseblossom of Davidson each getting that many.

Sibley of Leisenring was the champion run getter with 13. Means of Monarch and Gotsel of Leisenring each had an even dozen. Frazier of Trotter and B. Tracy of Morgan scored 11 times while F. Jones of Leisenring and F. Spitzer of Davidson had 10 each. Spitzer's run getting record is noteworthy in view of his apparent weakness with the stick. He proved a good "lead off" man for the team he played on. The official batting averages of all players who participated in two or more games, as compiled from the official scores returned, are as follows:
